

Improvement Act of 2009, which I introduced with my colleague from Maine, Senator OLYMPIA SNOWE. This bill will help our public housing agencies deliver services to the families they serve more efficiently and effectively.

Due to a 2005 rule published by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, all public housing agencies are required to convert to asset management. Much of the guidance issued by HUD is inflexible and applies a one size fits all approach to managing housing units. HUD has treated managing every public housing program the same, when in fact, the multiple programs serve very different populations and operate in extremely different ways. Additionally, the regulations imposed by HUD have caused PHAs to lose operating funds and left many short-staffed. Finally, the asset management rules issued by HUD are incomplete and unclear, leaving PHAs uncertain of funding levels for each year. While Congress has attempted to address some of these issues through HUD Appropriations legislation, permanent fixes are necessary to ensure better guidance to PHAs.

The legislation that we introduced today will ease administrative burdens on many public housing agencies, particularly the small agencies, and ensure that they have the proper funding, guidance and support to implement the rule of asset management. I look forward to working with my colleagues to move this important piece of legislation forward.
